

meet the TEACHER

Ms. Meghan Romaine

Grades K & 1

Meghan Romaine, a dedicated educator with a Bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies and a minor in Childhood Studies from Stockton University, brings her passion for elementary education to the classroom. With two years of teaching experience, Meghan's background includes roles as a daycare worker, babysitter, and volunteer, reflecting her commitment to nurturing and supporting children's development. Outside of school, Meghan finds joy in reading and shopping, while also dedicating her time to volunteer work at her church, particularly in religious education. Although she doesn't currently have any pets, Meghan dreams of one day having a German Shepherd. Family-oriented, Meghan shares close ties with her parents and a younger brother who is currently in college. Her diverse experiences and caring nature make her a valuable asset to the school community.
